

World Politics & Popular Culture Conference

The Grand Hotel, Tynemouth

Thursday 19 November

	Orchid Suite	Oak Room	Chambers Suite
9.00 - 9.30		Registration & Coffee
9.30 - 10.30	Opening remarks Phil Dixon and Christine Savage (Whitley Bay Culture Quarter) The Politics of the Cultural Regeneration of the North Tyneside Coast
10.45-12.15	Bodies that Rest and Play: The Resort to/of World Politics Chair: Kyle Grayson Elisa Wynne-Hughes: Life Before Tourism: Producing 'the Tourist' Debbie Lisle: You Deserve a Break! The Biopolitics of Leisure Zuzana Kepplova: Harder, Better, Faster, Stronger: the Politics of the Clubbing Body	Cultures of Diplomacy Chair: Andrew Pepper Laura Mills: Sports Un-united: The Falacy of Cosmopolitan Cultural Diplomacy Annika Bergman Rosamond & Thomas Moore: Discourses and Practices of Celebrity Diplomacy: Individuals as Moral Agents Nick Randall: Shoulder to Shoulder? Recent Depictions of Anglo-American Relations in Moving Pictures Hugo Dobson: The Semiotics of Logos in International Relations: G8 and EU	Gaming Geopolitics and Biopolitics Chair: Lori Crowe Mark Edward: Connecting 'US Popular Culture' and 'US Interventionist Policies': Historicising Grand Theft Auto's Simulation of Haitian Subjectivities Lucian Ashworth: The Return of Classical Geopolitics: Computer Gaming and the Rediscovery of Space in International Relations Mark Salter: America's Army, Grand Theft Auto IV, and the Decorporalization of War. Duika Burges Watson: Popular Culture and the Social Marketing of Health: What's Wrong with Gaming4Life?
12.15 - 1.30	LUNCH	LUNCH	LUNCH
1.30 - 3.00	Superheroes: The Myth of the Super Solution Chair: Duika Burges Watson Lori Crowe: Iron Man: The New Anti-War Vigilante or Technoliberal Superhero Soldier Beth Davies-Stofka: Nothing Sacred: Marvel Comics and the War on Terror Mary Heath: Sisyphus or Superman? A Reading of Absurdity and Estrangement of the Self in Comic Book Superheroes.	Walter Benjamin, Aesthetics and International Relations Chair: Matt Davies Ritu Vij: Necro-Aesthetics and Public Life in Post-War Japan Claes Belfrage: Regularisation: Reconceptualising Stability and Change in Advanced Capitalism Anca Pusca: The Aesthetics of Xenophobia: Another Story of EU Enlargement Ronaldo Vazquez: Visual Economy and Aesthetic Resistance: Some Reflections	Narrating World Politics Chair: Simon Philpott Andrew Pepper: The Global Politics of the Contemporary Crime Novel Louise Amoore: Novel Politics: The Subject in Literature After 9/11 Kathryn Starnes: Fairly Tales as Political Narratives Kenneth Longden: Exoticising the Obsolete, Emancipating the Every-day: Millennial Influence of Retro Culture and Utopia in Contemporary Popular Fiction
3.00 - 3.30	BREAK	BREAK	BREAK
3.30 - 5.00	All Along the Watchtower: the Popular Politics of Battlestar Galactica Chair: Simon Philpott Stacy Gillis: Digital Virtuality and the Cyborg in Battlestar Galactica Karren Burrows: the Luxury of Simple Women: Representations of Queerness in Battlestar Galactica Robin Stoaate: Representations of Resistance and Reconciliation in Battlestar Galactica	Popular Articulations of the National Chair: Matt Davies Nick Morgan: Moral Panics, Mass Hysteria and Social Authoritarianism: Representing the Popular in Colombia Marie Thorsten: Beauty vs Cute: Contentious Aesthetics in Japanese International Relations Chris Goto-Jones: Beyond Utopia: New Politics, the Politics of Knowledge and the Science Fictional Field of Japan Talya Leodari: Theatre Under Occupation: 'This Machine Kills Fascists'	Cultural Transition: Cold War to War on Terror Chair: Phoebe Moore Christina Rowley: What Home was Always Supposed to Be: Rehabilitating the Vietnam War in We Were Soldiers David Martin-Jones: Save the Girl or Make Profit? Differing Negotiations of Post-9/11 USA in the Hollywood Movies War of the Worlds (2005) and Flightplan (2005) Patricia Molloy: Rescue Me: Death, Trauma, and the Crisis of Masculinity in Post-9/11 American TV

World Politics & Popular Culture Conference

The Grand Hotel, Tynemouth

Thursday 19 November

	Orchid Suite	Oak Room	Chambers Suite
9.00 - 9.30		Registration & Coffee
9.30- 11.00	Keynote address: Professor Mike Shapiro Geophilosophy, Aesthetics and the City
11.15- 12.45	Can You Hear It? The Music of World Politics Chair: David Mutimer Marianne Franklin: It's all in the Art of Stopping: Musico-Political Dissent, Digital Media, and the Global Culture Industries John Street: The Popular and the Apolitical: The Unpopular and the Political Simona Stefanescu: 'Manele'- the 'Ultimate' Phenomenon in the Romanian Popular Culture	The Politics of Cultural De/ Reneration Chair: Beth Davies-Stofka Jayne Rodgers: Social Media and the Voluntary Sector Phoebe Moore: Peer Production and the Precariat Worker: Final Countdown for Capitalism? Matt Davies: The Spatial Architectonics of International Political Economy: Work, Body, Aesthetics	Landscape and Geographic Imaginaries Chair: David Campbell Ann Davies: Transnational Landscapes of Memory: Guillermo del Toro's Pan's Labyrinth Angharad Closs Stephens: Beyond the Imaginary Geographies of War on Terror Sina Lucia Kottmann: Potential to Politicise: Popular Collective Stagings of the 'Own' and the 'Other' on Spain's Borders to Morocco; Past Encounters and Present Excitabilities Martin Coward: Zombies and Flesh Eaters: Imagining Urban Cataclysm in the Era of Metropolitanisation
12.45- 2.00	LUNCH	LUNCH	LUNCH
2.00 - 3.30	Watching the News Chair: Kyle Grayson Ofer Berenstein: Documentary Comics Reading and the Establishment of Public Opinion: A Case Study David Grondin: From Mad Money to Mad Comedian: 'Watching' the News as Political Resistance and Contestation Dale Serda: Comic Journalism as New Journalism: Emotional Authenticity through 'Collaborative Concreteness' in Sacco's Palestine, Safe Area Gorazde and Chechen War, Chechen Women David Mutimer: Drawing Conclusions: Editorial Cartoons and the Response to 9/11	Visuality Chair: Louise Amooore Debbie Lisle: Reflection or Preparation? The Uses of Late Photography David Campbell: The Photographic Performance of the War on Gaza Simon Philpott: Knowing Islam: Seeing is not Believing Mark Lacy: Cold War Modern and Designer Security	